

A7: STUNTED HOLLOW PEDESTALS

These are included here more in anticipation than in respect of present evidence. The examples are all small base fragments only, and they may all belong to pedestalled bowls or other section F forms. They are not the same as the A4 or A5 form, being similar to a shape found in earlier Iron Age pottery.

- |   |  |          |   |
|---|--|----------|---|
| 1 | Colchester, Sheepen, one in type trays (not illus.).               | -S       | ● |
|   | 1970, pit (not illus.).  | cAD10-43 | ● |
| 2 | Wickham Bishops, CM 7334.1927. MacMurdo; (very small. Not illus.). | -S       | ● |
| 3 | Orsett 'Cock', unpublished excavations (not illus.).               | -S       | △ |
| 4 | Springhead, unpublished excavations (not illus.).                  | cAD45    | △ |
| 5 | Bigberry [1547].   | HM-      | ● |
| 6 | Prae Wood, XXII [1341].  | AD30-50  | ● |
| 7 | Odell, unpublished excavations, ditch (not illus.).                | 3S       | ● |

